

Kenworth Names 2014 Dealer Council, Focused on Delivering Superior Customer Support

KIRKLAND, Wash. – Kenworth Truck Company has named its 2014 Kenworth Dealer Council members.

Leading executives from among the more than 345 Kenworth dealerships in the United States and Canada serve on the prominent council. The council works with Kenworth to enhance and promote the trucking industry's strongest dealer network in a continuing effort to provide superior customer support.

“We have an outstanding line-up of very knowledgeable and experienced Kenworth dealer executives serving on this year's Kenworth Dealer Council,” said Tom Bertolino, 2014 Kenworth Dealer Council chairman and also vice president of NorCal Kenworth in Sacramento, Calif. “The Council will work closely with Kenworth to advance the level of support for fleets and truck operators that depend upon Kenworth dealerships throughout the United States and Canada for their new and used trucks, service and parts.”

In addition to Bertolino, 2014 Kenworth Dealer Council members are: Will Bruser, Truckworx Kenworth, Birmingham, Ala.; Bill Currie, Inland Kenworth, Burnaby, B.C.; Carl Herzog, Central Illinois Trucks, Normal, Ill.; David Laird, Papé Kenworth, Eugene, Ore.; Mike Murphy, MHC Kenworth, Leawood, Kan.; and Vince Tarola, Kenworth Truck Centres, Concord, Ont. Erick Miner of Central Illinois Trucks, Normal, Ill.; serves as the Kenworth American Truck Dealers (ATD) line representative.

“We appreciate the dedication of these Kenworth dealer executives, who will diligently work with Kenworth Truck Company in 2014 to further strengthen the excellence of Kenworth customer support throughout the United States and Canada,” said Preston Feight, Kenworth assistant general manager for sales and marketing.
